ZOO CAFÉ

I want to tell you about a very special café in Budapest, Hungary. It is called the Zoo Café. In this café you can have a good cup of coffee with a sandwich or one of their excellent cakes. But what is unusual about this café is that, while you are there, you can spend time with the animals that live there.

The café is home to many different animals. There is one room with cages for small animals like rabbits, lizards, and squirrels. In another room you can look at colorful birds and snakes in cages on the walls. There are also many very big and friendly cats that run around the place freely. The cats have their own toys to play with. The whole café is organized to make the animals comfortable.

When you order your food and drink, the waiter will ask what animal you want to see. The waiter will bring the animal to your table and show you – and any children with you – how to hold it and play with it. If customers would like to have an animal at home like one of the animals in the café, the waiters can give them information. They can tell them where to buy it and how to take care of it.

Some people worry about the animals in the café. However, all the animals seem to be healthy. There are always two adults in each room to make sure children don't hurt animals in any way. So there is nothing to worry about.

If you visit Budapest, be sure to go to the Zoo Café. It is very popular, so order a table before you go.
